

Optional Extra Accommodation at Villa Romantique - 'La Petite Villa Romantique'

If you require extra, separate accommodation at Villa Romantique we have now completed a total restoration of our 'La Petite Villa Romantique' which can be rented as additional accommodation for £350 - £650 per week all-inclusive. 'La Petite Villa Romantique' is a charming 1-bedroomed single-storey house which accommodates 1, 2 or 3 people, or a couple with 2 children.

'La Petite Villa Romantique' has its own 'petite' private garden and parking, and is tucked away in the corner of the large garden of Villa Romantique. It is not overlooked by the main villa - or by any other properties. It cannot be rented separately - it can only be rented with the villa.

'La Petite Villa Romantique' is perfect for an older couple who may wish to have peace and quiet, separate from, but near to the main villa; or for a couple who like privacy; or for a romantic couple who want to be away from the main house; or for a family of 3 (or possibly 4, as there is a sofa-bed, and a baby-cot is available - which is normally folded and stored out of the way in the wardrobe) ; or to accommodate staff who travel with the family - for instance a nanny, chauffeur, secretary or personal assistant etc. where you need them to be nearby, but like them to have their own separate accommodation.

* There is a spacious living room (and the sofa converts to a double-width sofa-bed - thus creating 2 separate sleeping rooms at night, if required). There is a dining area and an equipped kitchen corner (with a sink, two-ring electric hob, fridge/freezer, washing machine, microwave oven, cafetiere, toaster ,electric kettle , utensils etc.) The double bedroom has a large double-bed which can be separated to make twin beds, if preferred. There is a spacious shower-room with a large shower cubicle, washbasin and WC. Our 'Petite Villa Romantique ' is charmingly furnished and decorated in an authentic Provencal style with beautiful tapestries adorning the walls. Both the living room and bedroom have glazed double-doors opening directly out on to the shaded sun-terrace with a further table and chairs - ideal for al-fresco meals and drinks - and it's own secluded and totally private 'petite' garden.

- The price for 'La Petite Villa Romantique' is from £350 to £650 per week all-inclusive depending on the time of the year. Please note that you don't have to rent 'La Petite Villa Romantique' if you don't need it. It is available as an optional extra. Please note that as 'La Petite Villa' is within the grounds of Villa Romantique we will never let 'La Petite Villa' as a separate booking - so if you don't wish to rent it, rest assured that it will remain empty and won't be occupied by any other visitors whilst you are in residence.
